Undergraduate Integrated Seminar on “STERILIZATION & DISINFECTION”

An Undergraduate Integrated Seminar on “STERILIZATION & DISINFECTION” was organized by the Department of Microbiology, TSRMCHRC on 20.11.18 at Lecture hall –II of College block after getting formal permission from Dean. It was conducted for II-MBBS (3rd Sem) students who are at present learning Basics in General Bacteriology.

Proceedings of the seminar:

The programme commenced at 1pm with the welcome address and introduction about the importance of common Sterilization methods followed in our hospital by Dr.A.Uma, Prof & HOD of Dept of Microbiology.

This was followed by the regular seminar. The integrating departments were Dept of Surgery and Dept of Anesthesiology apart from Dept of Microbiology.

The first presentation was by Dr.Diego Edwin, Asst Prof of Dept of Microbiology who delivered his lecture on “Definition, Methods & Classification of Sterilization & Disinfection”. He mentioned about all the physical and chemical methods available for cleaning hospital instruments, surfaces, etc.,

The second presentation was by Dr.Navaneetha, Asst Prof of Surgery who talked on “Choice of Disinfectants”. She vividly narrated various chemical disinfectants with various concentration and its clinical uses.

The third presentation was by Dr.J.D.Jahappriya, Tutor in Department of Microbiology who spoke on “OT Sterilization”. She described the Basic structure, ventilation, Cleaning and Disinfection of Operation theatre. She also explained the method and the frequency of OT surveillance in our hospital.

The fourth and last presentation was by Dr.Kirubakaran, Asst Prof Dept of Anaesthesia who presented on “Functioning of CSSD”. He briefly explained various instruments and methods used in our hospital for sterilizing the surgical instruments and the role of CSSD in supplying sterile equipments to OT with beautiful images. He also described the various zones in CSSD and its work flow pattern. He invited all the students to visit the CSSD.

This was followed by a photo based QUIZ competition conducted by Dr.A.Anupriya, Asst Prof of Microbiology. All the students participated enthusiastically. All the students were appreciated for their participation and motivated to participate in the ensuing programme. The seminar came to end by 3.30pm.
