FACULTY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

SESSION - 6

Session of Faculty development programme (FDP) was headed by Mr. Satheeswaran, Department of Tamil 11/09/2015 about Post Modernism.

The session started with Modern Tamil and its applications. The program was followed by the topics like,

- Introduction of Modern Tamil
- Difference between Old literature and Modern Literature
- Development of Short stories and Novels
- Post Modernism

Mr. Satheeswaran explained about, what is literature about? and quoted that Literature is writing which insists about the existing people and their Culture and Life style.

Comparing Old and Modern Literature, He stated that, In early 20th century the people were against the arrival of Short stories and Novels which deforms the concept of Literature. There was some discussion about the reliability of Historical Literature as some are true and some are based on the scripts and imaginations.

The main notion of this session is about the Post Modernism in case of Literature as it is getting updated like technology and science. He informed staff members about the Linear and non-linear Perspective Literature which includes so many principles which is being followed by us unknowingly like Feminism, Dalitism, and Marginal Literature and so on.

The session was very interactive with so many questions from the staff members like,

Was Silapathikaram true?

Why the history cannot be taken as example?

How far the Tamil language is better?

Why Bharathiyar was not so famous?

Ms. Nalini, Academic Co-ordinator stated that the People of Tamilnadu are having average lifespan of 70 years is due to the Language - Tamil because while speaking Tamil the tongue is moving all around which makes the nerves active leads to good health.

The session concluded with the formal thanks who have attended the programme.
