Dear Parents,

Greetings from Vels Vidyashram!

We hope that you are taking good care of your family and yourself as advised by the Govt. and experts. At our end, we are doing everything possible to ensure that the learning continues. Predicting this crisis earlier we declared the results well in advance, arranged for book distribution. Our teachers, under the direct supervision of the management, conducting online classes, offering assignments and also ensuring that your ward attends it. In order to continue the service without any hindrance, we need your support as well.
